

Angie Follensbee-Hall
Jai Studios LLC
www.angiefollensbeehall.com

Artist Mission Statement

I layer stories of place and myth into handmade paper tapestries and manuscripts. What emerges through plant fibers, found materials, and vivid colors are artifacts of belonging and sacred offerings. My mission is to awaken a sense of connection, belonging, and engagement in others by exploring the art of living in partnership with creativity.

Artist Bio

Angie Follensbee-Hall has been a professional artist exhibiting her handmade-paper tapestries throughout the nation for over 20 years. She holds a BFA degree from Plymouth State University and a Master of Arts in the Education of Creative Practice from Goddard College. She is a member of the League of NH Craftsmen, The Vermont Handcrafters, and the New Hampshire Art Association. Angie has exhibited regionally and nationally and has won art awards through Elmira College, the League Of NH, Cambridge Art Association, and NHAA. She is also a Certified Yoga Teacher, E-RYT 500, has leads a 5 star Registered Yoga School, is a Reiki Master Teacher, an Attunement Healer, and has taught and designed art courses at Granite State College and several other area art centers.

To learn more about Angie, visit her website
www.angiefollensbeehall.com